

SENTENCED TO HANG

On last Friday afternoon in the circuit court of Pocahontas county, Theodore Carr was found guilty of murder in the first degree, for the killing of Lock Sharp, near Edray, on October 30, 1928.

On Monday morning Judge Summers H. Sharp sentenced him to be hung on Friday, June 14, 1929.

At the time Carr shot and killed Sharp he also killed his third wife, Mrs. Lydia Houdyshell Carr, and shot at his step-son, Thilbert Houdyshell.

The killing grew out of trouble over a land suit in which Sharp was purchasing a tract of land from Mrs. Carr. The killing took place in a field near Warwick. Squire Uriah Bird was an eye witness of the tragedy.

The trial began on Thursday morning. The case went to the jury at noon on Friday. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. In pronouncing the

Mrs.
who v
four w cation
was a Sunda

Vir
of Joe
impro

Da
was c
of th

Mi
was i was a

Th Marl
to ge getti allow day

M daug splen

first degree. In pronouncing the sentence, Judge Sharp said:

"Theodore Carr, you will stand up. Do you know of anything to say for yourself why the judgment of the Court should not be pronounced against you at this time?

(No response)

"You have been found guilty by a jury of your peers of first degree murder and they not having seen fit to make recommendation to this Court, consequently, there is nothing for the Court to do but carry out the extreme penalty of the law.

"You have been found guilty of one of the highest offenses known to the law, that of taking the life of your fellowman without justification, or excuse. I doubt whether the criminal annals of this County will disclose a more brutal homicide than this with which you have been charged and convicted. The evidence discloses that without any provocation, I might say, on the date of this felony charged, you armed yourself with a gun, evidently knowing these folks were over there running off this piece of land, you go over there and without giving Lock Sharp warning and without giving him a chance you deliberately and willfully shot him

splendidly

Mrs. Sil
is improv
out in the

Mrs. F
ville ma
pendicit
her home

John
Mr. and known p ill in the inal flu.

Summ
the hosp
this wee

REM

One m alone. in fire, try guilt b around the scen
filled wi
took do page da
years.

"I su
glanced doing t
iness

"You have been found guilty of one of the highest offenses known to the law, that of taking the life of your fellowman without justification, or excuse. I doubt whether the criminal annals of this County will disclose a more brutal homicide than this with which you have been charged and convicted. The evidence discloses that without any provocation, I might say, on the date of this felony charged, you armed yourself with a gun, evidently knowing these folks were over there running off this piece of land, you go over there and without giving Lock Sharp warning and without giving him a chance you deliberately and willfully shot him and took his life and then, killed your wife. While you were not convicted of that, yet the evidence shows after shooting at your step son, Thilbert Howdyshell, two or three times, you saw your wife who had sought refuge in flight and you pursued her and then evidently shot her as she ran, wounding her, and she saw she could not escape, and she turned to plead with you not to take her life and you fired the shot that took her life and you extended to her no mercy and the hosp

this we

REM

One m alone.
fire, try
guilt
around the see filled w
took de page d
years.

"I
glance
doing iness
ever s have thous
tented oppor
glean gathe
merc bound ends
fiddle
men;
have

for that reason I presume the jury has extended to you no mercy. Possibly you had been brooding over your domestic troubles, letting the matter grow on you and cultivating it, you decided to do something desperate. I can't imagine a person letting a thing get away with him like you probably did in this case.

In pursuance of the verdict of the jury and in obedience to law, it is the judgment of this Court that upon the rising of this Court you be taken from the jail of this County to the penitentiary of this State which is located in the City of Moundsville, County of Marshall and there confined until the 14th day of June, 1929, on which date within the walls of the penitentiary of this State you will be hung by the neck until dead. From this time forward the time will bear heavily with you in the solitude of your abode and the only admonition or exhortation I can give you would be that you look to the God above, the Prince of Peace for peace of mind and comfort of soul. You are remanded to jail."

Carr is fifty years of age. He is a son of the late Peter Carr, of Clawson. He is the father of a number of children.

STATE AID

THIS, I HAVE RE
green populists
put out the f conductors a horse traders
Republicans, Whigs, and ty
men. But t
proud to say, here. Their sure they wo year. I ref human or be the world, w
he can feast
nocent girl.
warmest of
never atone
and advised hell of his lit an asbest
book back o
'I may be a
got some Work and

OUR C

Frank, V
munity Co
held March
E. Banks a
Agent in c

The peo
showed gr

SENTENCED TO HANG

On last Friday afternoon in the circuit court of Pocahontas county, Theodore Carr was found guilty of murder in the first degree, for the killing of Lock Sharp, near Edray, on October 30, 1928.

On Monday morning Judge Summers H. Sharp sentenced him to be hung on Friday, June 14, 1929.

At the time Carr shot and killed Sharp he also killed his third wife, Mrs. Lydia Houdyshell Carr, and shot at his step-son, Thilbert Houdy-

Mr
who four cat
wa
Su

15

Chin

GINIA: APRIL 28 1927

A CONFESSION

ar Cal:

have just read a story in the rleston Gazette of a wonderful that the "Chief" had paid $20
How silly it seems to me that

Carr Begins Last Fight

To Hang June 14; Will Seek Executive Clemency From Conley

Theodore D. Carr, through his counsel, began his last fight Saturday to escape the gallows June 14.

Denied an appeal from a conviction for first degree murder, Frank R. Hill, counsel, made preliminary arrangements at the governor's office to present an application for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment.

Hill submitted a petition to the supreme court for a writ of error through which he sought to have the appellate court review the record of the case for the purpose of obtaining a new trial. The petition was refused after which Hill visited the govertold Jenking he would file the application this week.

Carr was sentenced to be hanged by Circuit Court Judge Sammers H. Sharp following his conviction for slaying Lock Sharp, a neighbor. Carr was also indicted for slaying his wife, who was killed at the same time but he was not tried under the latter indictment. The defense claimed temporary insanity caused by Carr's brooding over financial and marital troubles. He has been estranged from his wife.

Carr is now occupying a cell in murderers row in the state penitentiary at Moundsville, W. Va. He is scheduled to be hanged on June 14, and was placed in the death cell Tuesday morning, June 4.

The only thing that can save him from death is executive clemency from Governor Conley.

---

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Board of

he was not tried at dictment. The defense claimed temporary insanity caused by Carr's brooding over financial and marital troubles. He has been estranged from his wife.

Carr is now occupying a cell in murderers row in the state penitentiary at Moundsville, W. Va. He is scheduled to be hanged on June 14, and was placed in the death cell Tuesday morning, June 4.

The only thing that can save him from death is executive clemency from Governor Conley.

---

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the

FRANK MOORE

ices for Frank Moore, Sunday afternoon at home on Knapps Creek, was made in the Cleeck. Eubank conducted re, until two months layed in the paper mill,

In some manner he incident, which resulted using his death in a Va., hospital Friday. on of the late Jacob arrived by his mother a, Ruby Georgia and

Day Lift on Politics le to Good hip in Taboo Discussions

is., June 8.—Kiwanis civic club in which ways been taboo—the words "democratic" mentioned as members discuss public of discarding the old be one of the main will be discussed in 23—27 when 7,000 of them from the Canada, gather for meeting.

promote fellowship, co-operation, politics

Alienists Observe Theodore Carr

Examination Made at Request of Governor; No Report Yet Given Out

Two alienists visited the death house at the state penitentiary, Moundsville, yesterday to observe Theodore Carr, condemned to hang Friday night. They were Dr. L. W. Guthrie of Huntington, and Dr. J. G. Pettitt, of Terra Alta, who went at the request of Governor William G. Conley. They are expected to report today or tomorrow on the prisoner's mental condition. A petition for clemency is pending before the governor.

According to a dispatch in a Wheeling newspaper, since entering the death house Friday night, Carr's condition has appeared to grow worse. He is broken both physically and mentally, and moans and weeps day and night. He scarcely touches his food. Lately, the dispatch says, he has been complaining of a pain in the back of his head. Should he continue to lose strength, prison officials fear it may be necessary to carry him to the scaffold.

Spanish War Vets To Meet in Parkersburg

The annual state encampment of the United Spanish American War Veterans will be held in Parkersburg on June 24 and 25. Colonel Lee time, and abdominal wounds or operations.

---

Theodore Carr Taken To Moundsville Mon.; To Hang June 14th

---

Petition to Commute Sentence Will Be Submitted to Governor Conley.

---

Guards, sent from the State Penitentiary, Moundsville, left here Monday with Theodore Carr, 50, farmer, who is under sentence to hang June 14th, for the murder of his brother-in-law, Lock Sharp. He was sentenced May 27 but was not taken to prison because of an appeal pending in the state supreme court. The appeal was denied.

Carr shot and killed Sharp, and his wife, Lydia Howdyshell, last November as they were surveying a piece of land on which he claimed he had forbidden them to trespass. His trial was held at the March term of Circuit Court.

It is understood that a petition for a stay of execution will be presented to Governor Conley.

Far

in

Journal

VA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1929

s of June Term ahontas Co. Circuit Court

FR

Funeral ser
27, were held his mother's h
and interment

MOORE

for Frank Moore, day afternoon at on Knapps Creek, made in the Cleek Cubank conducted until two months in the paper mill, in some manner he ent, which resulted ng his death in a , hospital Friday. of the late Jacob ived by his mother Ruby Georgia and

y Lift on Politics

e to Good p in Taboo ussions

s., June 8.—Kiwanis civic club in which ways been taboo—the words “democrat-ican” mentioned as mbers discuss public

f discarding the old be one of the main

Alienists Observe Theodore Carr

Examination Made at Re- quest of Governor; No Report Yet Given Out

Two alienists visited the death house at the state penitentiary, Moundsville, yesterday to observe Theodore Carr, condemned to hang Friday night. They were Dr. L. W. Guthrie of Huntington, and Dr. J. G. Pettitt, of Terra Alta, who went at the request of Governor William G. Conley. They are expected to report today or tomorrow on the prisoner's mental condition. A petition for clemency is pending before the governor.

According to a dispatch in a Wheeling newspaper, since entering the death house Friday night, Carr's condition has appeared to grow worse. He is broken both physically and mentally, and moans and weeps day and night. He scarcely touches his food. Lately, the dispatch says, he has been complaining of a pain in the back of his head. Should he continue to lose strength, prison officials fear it may be necessary to carry him to the scaffold.

---

IA, MARCH 21, 1929

---

GREENBANK DISTRICT TEACHERS 1929-30

SENTENCED TO HANG

On last Friday afternoon in the circuit court of Pocahontas county, Theodore Carr was found guilty of murder in the first degree, for the killing of Lock Sharp, near Edray, on October 30, 1928.

On Monday morning Judge Summers H. Sharp sentenced him to be hung on Friday, June 14, 1929.

At the time Carr shot and killed Sharp he also killed his third wife, Mrs. Lydia Houdyshell Carr, and shot at his step-son, Thilbert Houdyshell.

The killing grew out of trouble over a land suit in which Sharp was purchasing a tract of land from Mrs. Carr. The killing took place in a field near Warwick. Squire Uriah Bird was an eye witness of the tragedy.

The trial began on Thursday morning. The case went to the jury at noon on Friday. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.

M
who four cati
was Sun

V
of J imp

D
was
of t

M was was

T
Mar
to g gett

allow
day

M
daug

noon on Friday. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. In pronouncing the sentence, Judge Sharp said:

"Theodore Carr, you will stand up. Do you know of anything to say for yourself why the judgment of the Court should not be pronounced against you at this time?

(No response)

"You have been found guilty by a jury of your peers of first degree murder and they not having seen fit to make recommendation to this Court, consequently, there is nothing for the Court to do but carry out the extreme penalty of the law.

"You have been found guilty of one of the highest offenses known to the law, that of taking the life of your fellowman without justification, or excuse. I doubt whether the criminal annals of this County will disclose a more brutal homicide than this with which you have been charged and convicted. The evidence discloses that without any provocation, I might say on the date of this a more brutal homicide than this with which you have been charged and convicted. The evidence discloses that without any provocation, I might say, on the date of this felony charged, you armed yourself with a gun, evidently knowing these folks were over there running off this piece of land, you go over there and without giving Lock Sharp warning and without giving him a chance you deliberately and willfully shot him and took his life and then, killed your wife. While you were not convicted of that, yet the evidence shows after shooting at your step son, Thilbert Howdyshell, two or three times, you saw your wife who had sought refuge in flight and you pursued her and then evidently shot her as she ran, wounding her, and she saw she could not escape, and she turned to plead with you not to take her life and you fired the shot that took her life and you extended to her no mercy and for that reason I presume the jury has extended to you no mercy. Possibly you had been brooding over your domestic troubles, letting the matter grow on you and cultivating it, you decided to do something desperate. I can't imagine a person letting a thing get away with him like you probably did in this case.

In pursuance of the verdict of the jury and in obedience to law, it is the judgment of this Court that upon the rising of this Court you be taken from the jail of this County to the penitentiary of this State which is located in the City of Moundsville, County of Marshall and there confined until the 14th day of June, 1929, on which date within the walls of the penitentiary of this State you will be hung by the neck until dead. From this time forward the time will bear heavily with you in the solitude of your abode and the only admonition or exhortation I can give you would penitentiary of this State which is located in the City of Moundsville, County of Marshall and there confined until the 14th day of June, 1929, on which date within the walls of the penitentiary of this State you will be hung by the neck until dead. From this time forward the time will bear heavily with you in the solitude of your abode and the only admonition or exhortation I can give you would be that you look to the God above the Prince of Peace for peace of mind and comfort of soul. You are remanded to jail."

Carr is fifty years of age. He is son of the late Peter Carr, of Clawson. He is the father of a number of children.

---

STATE AID

Teachers' drafts are still being held up due to the fact that the State A ld, 60 acres of land in Little Lee District, $770.00.

S. Cochran and wife to Charles Long, 2 acres of land in Greenbank District, $100.00.

STATE MEDICAL EXAMS TO BE HELD JULY 9-10

Medical examinations for those who desire to practice medicine in West Virginia will be held in Martinsburg July 9-10th, it was announced today by Dr. W. T. Henry, state health commissioner. The Public Health Council, the licensing board of the state, will also interview all doctors who desire license through reciprocity.

BANKERS MEET

Over 200 bankers, from all parts of West Virginia attended the annual convention of the State Bankers Association held in Bluefield Thursday. J. M. Fleming, of Grafton, presided at the meeting. None of the local bankers attended.

WEDDING

June the 13th, at the Marlinton Methodist parsonage Isaac Frank and Helen Dorothy Curry were married by Rev. S. R. Neel. The young people are residents of Marlinton community.

John Cunningham, of Elkins, was the guest of Miss Beryl Mar-public is cordially invited.

strike.

X.

Theodore Carr Pays Penalty Friday; Faces Gallows With Steady Nerve

Theodore Carr was hanged at the state prison, Friday, June 14, for the slaying of Lock Sharp on October 30, 1929. In contrast to demeanor while in the death house, when he appeared unnerved, he walked coolly to the gallows and payed the penalty. The trap was sprung at 8:58 and he was pronounced dead nine and one half minutes later.

"Goodbye" was the last word uttered when asked if he had any statement to make before the trap was sprung. He had been praying throughout the day with Rev. W. C. Herold, prison chaplain, who accompanied him on his death walk. He walked the fifteen feet from the death cell to the execution chamber unassisted.

The body was claimed by his son, Cecil Carr, and was shipped to Clawson, this county Sunday. The funeral was held Monday afternoon by Rev. K. V. Bowen, pastor of the Marlinton Presbyterian Church.

At the invitation of Warden L. M. Robinson, twenty persons were present but none witnessed the execution.

The condemned man's last hours were spent with his son, two brothers and the prison chaplain.

Carr had been pronounced sane after an examination Wednesday by Dr. L. V. Guthrie, superintendent of Huntington state hospital. In his report the Dr. said, 'Carr is somewhat depressed but he is not insane and understands the nature and quality of his acts and the difference between right and wrong.'

Appeals from the decision of the Pocahontas county court were denied by the state supreme court and a petition for executive clemency was denied by Governor Wm. G. Conley.

The shooting occurred on the Carr property. Carr had become involved in financial difficulties and had also become separated from his wife. The property had been sold under court order and had been bid in by the wife although the sale yet required confirmation by the court. Mrs. Carr, Sharp, her son and Uriah Bird, a surveyor, were on the farm for the purpose of laying out a tract the woman had contracted to sell to Sharp when Carr appeared armed with a shot gun.

Without a word, the evidence showed, Carr went close to Sharp who was driving a stake in the ground and shot him through the heart. Young Howdyshell started to run and two shots were fired at him, both missing. Still without a word Carr turned around and started up the hill toward his boarding house. At the same time Mrs. Carr began running away in an opposite direction and this attracted Carr's attention. He pursued her and Mrs. Carr stopped and awaited her husband's approach. They had a few words and the shot gun again became an instrument of death. Leaving the body of his wife in the field Carr walked up the hill meeting his daughter on the way. She asked about her mother.

(Continued on page eight)

THEODORE S. CARR PAYS PENALTY WITH OWN LIFE

(Continued from page one)

Plead Temporary Insanity

Resulting from

Plead Temporary Insanity

Temporary insanity resulting from brooding over his financial and marital troubles formed the basis of Carr's defense. His attorneys contended that Carr became obsessed with the idea that Sharp was encouraging his wife in her actions toward him and that the two of them were manufacturing liquor on the Carr farm during Carr's absence at intervals in the lumber camps. Previous to the day of the double tragedy defense witnesses testified Carr in brooding over his troubles was frequently found crying and acting in "in a most peculiar manner" and showed "every evidence of great depression and temporary insanity." Carr maintained at the trial that he had no recollection of what transpired from the time he left the boarding house until the time he met his daughter on the return trip.

Carr was indicted February 13, was brought to trial on March 14 and convicted on the following day of first degree murder without recommendation for

Schools and the tion.

Mr. and Mrs.
ed to Huntingt
They were ac
Mayo Beard a
Before returnin to visit Mr. and who were forme
boro.

Mr. and Mrs.
visiting at the parents, Mr. and Miss Ethel M
Miss Virginia C
ing, June 16.

Mr. and Mrs.
of Hillsboro,
home of Mr. a Sunday afterno
Miss Eula Ma
home for a few
May is a stude
Business Colleg

YEAR BOOK
Washington,
Congressman
been notified t
of Agricultural

M. Bell, represent
and one to bring it three urged to sident of ociety will er.
urch
tor
m. and a ersion im-Chapel at val meet-total of 7 at Marnuel.
at Mt.
ain Sunith, of charge everybody

show every evidence of great depression and temporary insanity." Carr maintained at the trial that he had no recollection of what transpired from the time he left the boarding house until the time he met his daughter on the return trip.

Carr was indicted February 13, was brought to trial on March 14 and convicted on the following day of first degree murder without recommendation for mercy. Judge Summers H. Sharp, in sentencing Carr to be hanged reviewed briefly the facts of the case.

"You have been found guilty of one of the highest offenses known to the law, that of taking the life of your fellow man without justification or excuse," Judge Sharp told Carr. "I doubt whether the criminal annals of the county will disclose a more brutal homicide than this of which you have been charged and convicted."

DENTAL NOTICE

I will be out of my office from June 18 to 26, inclusive.

ness of Sunday af
Miss Eu
time for a
May is a Business C
YEAR
Washing Congress
bee notifi
of Agricult available f
people of h
of interest
persons int
Anyone can write t queating a be mailed lasts. Mr.
the books
and to wh
greatest use M
Forrest M favored by teenth ann
West Virg

brother-in-law, Lock Sharp, at the Carr farm a mile east of Edray, on the Clover Lick Road. Carr also shot two or three times at his step son, Thilbert Houdyshell. He got some small shot in his leg, but is not much hurt. Squire Uriah Bird witnessed the killing. Carr is in jail.

Mrs. Carr, Lock Sharp and Squire Bird and young Houdyshell were engaged in surveying some land at Warwick, which Sharp was preparing to buy from his sister-in-law Mrs. Carr. About four o'clock just as the last stakes were being set, Theodore Carr came up, and without a word to anyone shot Sharp dead; the charge from a sixteen guage shot gun striking him below the heart. He then turned the gun on Thilbert Houdyshell, shooting at him two or three times, knocking his hat off and wounding him slightly in the legs as he ran behind a straw stack. Then Carr shot at his wife as she was making off, striking her in the hand. She turned back toward him, asking for mercy, and Carr shot her in the breast. She died almost instantly.

His Lock

dore
his her the on hot on,
me
ch
sed
ire
n-ar-to r.
ne
re
to e k-
n
-

sold for debt; and Mrs. Carr bought it in. To help meet the purchase price she was preparing to sell part of the land to Lock Sharp. Carr objected to the sale, and it is reported that he had made threats that he would kill Mrs. Carr and Sharp if they tried to put through the deal.

Carr is fifty years old. He is a son of the late Peter Carr of Clawson. He is the father of two children by Mrs. Carr, and a number of children by a former marriage.

Mrs. Carr was around forty years of age; she was a daughter of William E Sharp of Woodrow. She is survived by six children, four of them of a former marriage. On Thursday morning her body was taken to Mt. Zion graveyard in the Huntersville district and buried beside the grave of her first husband, Ervine Houdyshell.

Lock Sharp was 30 years of age; son of the late David Sharp, of near Marlinton. He was a blacksmith by trade. He is survived by his wife and their three children. On Thursday his body was buried at the grave

City

---

NOVEMBER 1, 1928

---

of opinions gathers head.”
above quotations need no com-